

E-mail :
nel@aspenrainingcentre.ca
Contact :
647-323-7348
Address :
7 Walsh Court,
Brockville, ON K6V 6X9

Nel Coloma-Moya

Languages I speak and write Tagalog at an intermediate level of fluency.
I speak Ilocano (a dialect in Northern Luzon, Philippines) at a beginner level

Education 2009- 2024 Queen's University Kingston, Ontario
Doctorate of Arts Degree in Geography
• Supervisor: Dr. Audrey Kobayashi
• Thesis Title: "Production of Filipino Cruise Ship Workers"

2007-2009 York University Toronto, Ontario
Master of Arts Degree in Geography
▪ Supervisor: Dr. Philip Kelly
▪ Committee: Dr Elizabeth Lunstrum
▪ Thesis title: "Remaking the Subject of Poverty in a Gawad Kalinga Village"

2006 OISE/University of Toronto Toronto, Ontario
Master of Arts Degree in Adult Education
▪ Supervisor: Dr Roxana Ng
▪ Committee: Dr. Kari Dehli
▪ Thesis title: " Locating Power, Knowledge and Subject in Nursing"

1985 York University Toronto, Ontario
Bachelor of Arts Degree in English Literature

1980 St. Lawrence College Brockville, Ontario
Diploma in Nursing

Awards,
Distinctions
and Fellowships

Queen's Graduate Award, September 2009, Queen's University

Geography Merit Award, Sept 2009, Queen's University

The David Wurfel Award for Studies in the Philippines, May 2008,
York Centre for Asian Research

The Challenges of the Agrarian Transition in Southeast Asia Research Grant, May 2008, ChATSEA

Master's Entrance Scholarship, September 2007, York University

Queen's Graduate Award 2009-2013. Queen's University

Teaching Assistantship. 2009-2013. Queen's University

Completed research:

Production of Filipino Cruise Ship Workers

- Developed research on 2 groups, students graduating from a maritime school and workers on cruise ships
- Explored the production of cruise ship workers in the cultural framework of home, school and workplace
- Conducted semi-structured interviews for 10 students and 25 workers
- Findings showed a decline in the dominance of Filipino seafarers due to inadequate instruction from maritime institutions primarily from lack of resources

The Gawad Kalinga Project

- Using Foucauldian theorizing, I conducted discourse analysis on a speech from the leader
- Fieldwork location: Philippines, on the main island of Luzon
- Developed contacts and have access to multiple village sites
- Conducted interviews and participant observation with a three day stay in two villages
- Toured five villages with the Gawad Kalinga organizers

Refereed:

- Mirchandani, K., Ng, R., Coloma-Moya, N., Maitra, S., Rawlings, T., Siddiqui, K., et al. (forthcoming 2009). The Entrenchment of Racial Fixities in Precarious Employment. In N. Pupo & D. Glenday (Eds.). The Shifting Landscape of Work: Surviving and Prospering in the New Economy. Toronto: Thomson Nelson.
- Mirchandani, K., Ng, R., Coloma-Moya, N., Maitra, S., Rawlings, T., Siddiqui, K., et al. (2009). Transitioning into Contingent Work : Immigrants' Learning and Resistance. In P. Sawchuk & A. Taylor (Eds.), Challenging Transitions in Learning and Work: Reflections on Policy and Practice. Rotterdam.

Publications and Presentations

Non-Refereed:

- Mirchandani, K., Ng, R., Coloma-Moya, N., Maitra, S., Rawlings, T., Siddiqui, K., (Unpublished Report, 2006). Skilled

Conference presentations:

- Coloma-Moya, Nel. (2005) Locating Power, Knowledge and Subject Within the Pages of "The Standard". Poster Pres

Research Experience

- Kelly,P. and Moya,N. (2006). Nursing a Colonial Hangover: Race,/class/gender and Filipina healthcare workers in Toronto. Paper presented at the annual conference of the Association of American Geographers. Chicago. 7-11 March. Available from the first author at York University, Toronto, Canada.
- Coloma-Moya, Nel (2008) Knowing Your Place: Filipino Migrants in Toronto. Paper presented at Race, Ethnicity and Place Conference, Miami, Florida.
- Coloma-Moya,N. (2009). Race and Colonization. Paper presented at Conference and Symposium: Thinking Beyond the Nation State. The Baldy Center for Law and Social Policy, University of Buffalo. 20 November.
- Coloma-Moya,N. (2010). My GK Experience: A Feminist Take on Compliance. Paper presented at Philippine Studies at York: Symposium and Lecture. York Centre for Asian Research. 23 September.
- Coloma-Moya, N. (2010). The Making of Subjects: Thinking Through Agency/Resistance in Diverse Settings. Panel presentation at Race, Ethnicity and Place Conference. Binghamton, 6-8 October.
- Coloma-Moya, N. (2012) The Messy World of Becoming: where the Mangle starts and Butler ends, Material Matters: Interdisciplinary Graduate Student Forum. Queen's University, Kingston. 21 November.
- Coloma-Moya, N. (2013) The Secret Agent: The Performance, The Performative and The Practice of Agency. Material Matters: Inter-disciplinary Graduate Student Forum. Queen's University. 8 January.
- Coloma-Moya, N. (2015) The Performative Context: Identity Formation and Cruise Ship Workers. York Centre for Asian Research: International Graduate Student Conference. York University Glendon Campus. 2May

Research Assistant, part-time 2005-2007

- Research assistantship for Filipino Migrant Study , Prof. Kelly
- Recruitment for participants in research study
- Conducted interviews and focus groups for study
- Transcription of interviews
- Coding of transcripts
- Analysis of data
- Well-developed writing and presentation skills
- Strong literary search and internet search capabilities
- Skilled in the use of Microsoft Office Suite

Research Collaborator, part-time 2000-2006

- Research Collaborator in Democratizing Workplace Learning Group at The Center for Education and Work, OISE/Un
- Recruitment for participants in research study
- Conducted interviews
- Transcription of interviews
- Coding of transcripts
- Analysis of data
- Well-developed writing and presentation skills

Teaching Experience

Sept 2015-current Seneca College

Course Instructor

- World Geography
- Contemporary Global Issues
- Global Economic Issues
- Physical Geography
- Green Gold: Sustaining Nature's Wealth
- Global Trade and Logistics Geography
- Global Economic Issues
- Globalization in the 20th Century

Course Instructor

George Brown College

- Science of Sustainability
- Science of Conquest
- Preserving the Planet
- Fundamental Themes in Geography

Course Instructor

Royal Conservatory of Music

- World Geography

Sept. 2009-current

Queens University, Ontario

Teaching Assistant

- Geography 365: Geography, Development and Environment in the Third World, fall term
- Geography 228: Geographies of the Global Political Economy, winter term
- Conduct tutorials
- Mark examinations, quizzes and essays

Sept. 2007-April 2009

York University, Toronto, Ontario

Teaching Assistant

- Geography 1000: World Geography
- Conduct tutorials
- Mark examinations, quizzes and essays

Founder

QuickRN: healthcare training for PSWs, RSAs and NCLEX Exam Prep for Nurses

Website: <https://quickrn.ca/>

Community Services

Served as Faculty mentor at Seneca College for the Enactus group (September 2016-2018)

Developed an inter-disciplinary graduate student discussion group at Queen's University

A forum was provided for graduate students to present their on-going work to their peers

Volunteer member of PROMPT (Policy Roundtable on Mobilizing Professions and Trades) 2004-2007

- Assisted in the development of research proposal and position papers regarding new immigrants

Volunteer member of the Advisory Committee for Race Relations and Multiculturalism in the TCDSB

- Secretary for the advisory committee 2005-2006
- Parent representative and ad hoc member 2004-2005

Catholic School Advisory Council Chair at St. Dunstan Catholic Elementary School 2003-2007

- Liaised with the school administration and the parents
- Conducted committee meetings monthly
- Developed and implemented after school programs for the students